CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property listed in this catalog, as may be amended by addendum sheet or oral announcement during the sale, is offered by Pacific Symphony.

ALL PROPERTY IS SOLD "AS IS" AND PACIFIC SYMPHONY DOES NOT MAKE ANY EXPRESS OR IMPLIED WARRANTIES OR REPRESENTATIONS OF ANY KIND OR NATURE WITH RESPECT TO THE PROPERTY, and in no event shall be responsible for the correctness of or be deemed to have made any representation or warranty of merchantability, description, genuineness, attribution, provenance or condition concerning the property and no statement in the catalog or made at the sale or in the bill of sale or the invoice of elsewhere shall be deemed as such warranty or representation or an assumption of liability. Pacific Symphony shall not be liable for any incidental or consequential damages arising from the sale of any property. Prospective bidders should inspect the property before bidding to determine its condition, size and whether or not it has been repaired or restored.

As used in the "Conditions of Sale," the term "the final bid" means the price at which a lot is knocked down to a Buyer and the term "the purchase price" means the sum of the final bid payable by the Buyer.

Pacific Symphony reserves the right to withdraw any lots before or at the sale or to combine two or more lots.

Some of the lots in this sale are offered subject to a reserve, which is the confidential minimum price below which the lot will not be sold. Pacific Symphony may implement the reserve by bidding through their representatives.

The highest Bidder acknowledged by the Auctioneer shall be the Buyer. The Auctioneer has the right to reject any bid and to advance the bid at his absolute discretion and, in the event of any dispute between bidders, to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the Article in dispute. Should there be any dispute after the sale; Pacific Symphony's record of final sale shall be conclusive. On the fall of the Auctioneer's hammer, the Buyer assumes full risk and responsibility for the lot and will be required to sign a confirmation of purchase, supply his/her name and address and pay the full purchase price. Receipt of payment at the premises of Pacific Symphony shall be deemed the completion of the sale. If the Buyer fails to comply with any such requirement, the lot may, at the Auctioneer's discretion, be put up and sold again.

Bids which are submitted to Pacific Symphony in writing or are otherwise left with Pacific Symphony prior to the sale for execution at or below a specific price are entertained and executed by Pacific Symphony for the convenience of the bidders, but Pacific Symphony shall not be responsible for failing to execute such bids or errors relating to the execution of such bids.

If any applicable conditions herein are not complied with by the Buyers, Pacific Symphony may, in addition to asserting all remedies available by law, including the right to hold the Buyer liable for the purchase price, either (1) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages any payment made by the Buyer or (2) resell the property on seven days' notice to the Buyer. If Pacific Symphony resells the property, the Buyer shall be liable for the payment of any deficiency in the purchase price and all costs including warehousing, the expenses of both sales, reasonable attorney fees, and all other charges due here under incidental damages. The Buyer shall pay any applicable federal, state and local taxes, including city and state sales tax.

Pacific Symphony reserves the right to refuse any person admission to the premises or attendance at the auction.

Special Notice

Wines are described in the catalog as correctly as can be ascertained at the time of going to press, but buyers of old wines must make appropriate allowance for natural variation of ullages, condition of cork and wine. No returns will be accepted.

Unless otherwise stated, Bordeaux are chateau-bottled.

Any statement as to the authorship, origin, date, age, provenance and condition is a statement or representation of fact. Pacific Symphony reserves the right, in forming its opinion, to consult and rely on any expert or authority considered by Pacific Symphony.

Travel Items

Purchasers of travel items will receive certificates or vouchers relating to the items outlined in the lot description. Pacific Symphony does not assume responsibility for further coordination arrangements. The luxury trip lots are intended for personal use only, and are not transferable.
