

VINTAGE ADVANTAGE

Superstar sommelier Michael Jordan (he's a master somm, don't you know!) was one of the many winemaking artisans and experts holding court for collectors and aficionados at the Pacific Coast Wine Festival. The sell-out event was co-chaired by Mike Kerr, Fred Salter and Valerie Van de Zilver, drew 325 people and raised $200,000 for Pacific Symphony Orchestra's artistic and education programs. The tempting tasting opportunities extended throughout Island Hotel's meeting rooms before guests adjourned to the ballroom for dinner and a live auction of trips and rare bottles of wine.

Master Sommelier Michael
Jordan with guests

Michele and
John Forsyte